WOMEN GRGANIZE

President Gompers Makes Opening Address and Predicts Success for Society.

The woman's department of the Na tional Civic Federation met this morning in the New Willard and before adjournment tomorrow afternoon a perma-nent and formal organization will have

Mrs. Thersion Ballard, of Louisville Ky., was temporary chairman of the meeting, with Miss Edith Comer, of Alabama, as secretary. President Gomp ers, of the American Federation of La bor, made the opening address and said that in his experience he had seen many women's organizations started with en thusiasm, but that he believed the same spirit of enthusiastic support would be maintained throughout the history of the proposed department.

Women's Position.

Mrs. Archibald Alexander delivered an address in which she outlined the purposes of the organization. She told how the past women had known little of industrial conditions and the hardhips which thousands of men and womn were compelled to undergo in the arious industries of which these women ad been the beneficiaries. She said that ow the women want to go into the bands, and brothers are head, study ut the conditions under which the em out the conditions under which the employes work and organize a system by which these conditions may be improved. The report of the nominating committee will be made some time this afternoon, and election of permanent officers will be held tomorrow. The nominating committee is composed of Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, chairman; Mrs. John R. Ottley, Atlanta; Mrs. William H. Crocker, San Francisco; Mrs. V. # CHURCHILL TO WED DAUGHTER OF EARL

LONDON. May 11 .- Following hard or the heels of Winston Churchill's political ictory at Dundee comes the report that the announcement may soon be exand Lady Dorothy Howard, daughter of the Earle of Carlisle, are engaged to

Now that this news has slipped out, it is revealed that wherever Mr. Churchill has been lately, Lady Dorothy has not been far away. At the Peckham by-election, when Mr. Churchill spoke on behalf of the deseated Radical candi date, she was at his side. At Manchester, where Mr. Churchill was defeated, she again was always in his train; and at Dundee she was his fair train; and at Dundee she was his fair supporter.

Lady Dorothy is the keenest politician in a very enthusiastic political family. She is a handsome girl and a very plucky one, and at Peckham she spoke very well at street corner meetings on behalf of the Liberal licensing bill.

Her father, the earl, is a Unionist, her mother a Radical, and a great temperance reformer, and of her brothers, one, Viscount Morpeth, is a Radical, and the other is a Unionist.

As president of the Board of Trade, Mr. Churchill, who has only a modest private income, will earn a salary of $25,000 per annum. He makes a good deal by his pen, and received $40,000 for the biography of his father, Lord Randolph Churchill.

AURORA, Ind., May 11 .- A band of DESTROYS TOBACCO FIELDS. marauders, supposedly from Kentucky destroyed the tobacco beds on the farm of Henry Keiser, five miles below here, early yesterday morning. They dug a grave, put in an old sword, a box of matches, and a note warning Keiser that if he attempted to raise any more tobacco he would occupy the grave. The farmers expect more trouble.

2:30 p. m.—General discussion. SHAW IN WASHINGTON,

TO GREET HIS FRIENDS

while the governors of the various States are in Washington, it will be because some well-laid plans go wrong, and present indications are that the plans will not be entirely disarranged. Leslie Mortimer Shaw, former banker governor of Iowa, Secretary of the Treasury, and late president of the Treasury, and late president of the Carnegie Trust Company of New York, and still possessed of political ambitions beyond those contained in the limits of a Cabinet portfolio, filtted about the corridors of the Hotel Willard today, busy as a bee. He was here, there, and everywhere, extending a cordial hand of welcome, telling a funny story occasionally, and extending his list of acquaintances.

dial hand of welcome, telling a fullily story occasionally, and extending his list of acquaintances.

Mr. Shaw declared that his visit to Washington at this particular time was without significance. He had come, he said, on personal business, and "for the purpose of meeting some friends who will be here during the week."

There was a rumor today that Mr. Shaw was not averse to having his friends become aware of the fact that he was entirely receptive so far as the Presidential nomination is concerned. This state of mind, it is said, is based on the bare possibility that Mr. Taft may not be able to evercome the opposition of the anti-Tafters at Chicago, in which event Mr. Shaw would be willing to stand as a compromise candidate.

MAN SAVES SON WITH FAMOUS BAT

NEW YORK, May II.—With the same trusty old bat that saved many a close game at the Polo Grounds, when he was one of the star hitters of the New Yorks. "Silent Mike" Tiernan saved another game, which involved the life of his son, William, when a group of ruffians, known as the "Canary Island Band" Saturday night attacked his saloon, at 2219 Frifth avenue. "Mike" Tiernan, who was in his home just across the way, heard the tumult, made a dash inside the saloon and pulled the old bat from the wall. At that moment William was in a hard fight with the odds against him, but Mike stretched five of the dozen assalants of his son out on the floor.

Meanwhile some one had called for the police, who, after a fight, made five arrests, the other men fleeing before the onslaught of the night sticks. The prisoners were held in $500 bail each.
